

RE: November Dance Newsletter

1. Thank you to all that participated in the ISU Homecoming Parade. We had an amazing 60 dancers!
2. November tuition is due. Costume down payments of $50 per class is due at this time. $100 due for competition dancers. $10 due for all folklore dancers for the rental of the red flamenco skirt. Please pay for all costume down payments prior to Dec 1 to avoid any late fees.
3. TSD will be hosting their 7th annual Dancers Against Cancer on Sat Nov 9 at the North Grand Mall in Ames. Please see your schedule for all details. Arrive plenty early so that your child does not miss their performance time. Dress all dancers in pink from head to toe! (Mexican Folklore Dancers will wear red & black uniform during the 2:15pm performance). Audience members are also encouraged to wear pink to support our event. We are raising money for the Susan G Komen Foundation, please stop by the booth and donate to our fundraiser.
4. Dance Spirit Week Nov 11-14...All dancers are encouraged to wear their TSD shirts to school and to dance class
6. Wed Nov 27...No dance classes
Thurs Nov 28...No dance classes
Happy Thanksgiving!
7. Sat Dec 14...Christmas Program for toddlers, preschoolers, Kg, 1st-4th graders, high school ballet/ pointe, high school tap, high school character, and all Mexican Folklore Dancers. This will take place at DeJardin Hall at the IVCCD building at MCC at 2pm. Admission is free. 5th-9th graders will not be a part of the Christmas program as they will be working on their May recital routines. Students are encouraged to wear Christmas colors, a Christmas dress, or a Christmas outfit of any sort. I am looking for several families to contribute a dessert (cookies, bars, etc) on this day. After our program, we will have a short reception for all families with cookies and punch.
8. TSD will be closed Dec 23-Jan 2. Happy Holidays!
